

GRAND— LABOR DAY CELEBRATION

Under the Auspices of the Central Labor Union of Barre and Vicinity

INTER-CITY PARK

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1916

The Barre and Montpelier Street Railway Co. will run 5c fares between Barre and Inter-city Park and between Montpelier and Inter-city Park.

ADDRESS BY REV. EDGAR J. CROSSLAND AT 1:30 P. M.
SUBJECT: "THE MELTING POT OF LABOR"

Grand Five-a-Side Championship Football Contest

For a Purse of $50.00—No Entry Money

Contest open to the state. Game called at 10:00 a. m. prompt. Robert Mutch, referee. All entries to close and teams drawn Friday, Sept. 1, at 8 p. m.

Boys' and Girls' Race

BOYS' RACE (Handicap)—15 years and under; prizes, 1st, $1.00; 2nd, 75c; 3rd, 50c; 4th, 25c. GIRLS' RACE (Handicap)—15 years and under; prizes, 1st, $1.00; 2nd, 75c; 3rd, 50c; 4th, 25c.

Shooting Competition

First prize, pipe, given by George Marrion. Second prize, umbrella, given by Union Clothing Company.

BASEBALL GAME

ST. JOHNSBURY VS BARRE A. C., for a Purse of $100.00

AMUSEMENTS FOR THE CHILDREN WILL BE PROVIDED

TRANSPORTATION TO DEPOT SQUARE—Trucks from Granville, Westerville, East Barre, Williamstown and other points will run from 6:30 a. m. to 10:20 p. m. Special arrangements can be made for parties attending the dance.

REFRESHMENTS

consisting of Sandwiches, Coffee, Soft Drinks, Ice Cream, Fruit, etc., will be served on the grounds.

MUSIC WILL BE FURNISHED BY THE

BARRE CITIZEN'S BAND

All the members of which belong to the Musicians' Union

Admission, Gents, 25c Ladies, 10c Boys 10 to 15 yrs., 10c

A Gate Prize for Ladies Will Be a Feature of the Day
BARREL OF FLOUR presented by Houghton & Robins to be drawn at 5 p. m. Ladies, save your gate checks. Winner must be on the grounds.

LABOR DAY DANCE

Dance will be held in Howland hall, recognized as the best dance hall in Vermont. Carroll's orchestra will furnish music. Dancing to commence at 8 o'clock sharp. Edward Anderson, floor manager.

Admission, 75c per couple; extra ladies, 10c

COMMITTEES

Sports—Fred W. Sutor, Chairman. Refreshments—Harry Dale, Chairman.
Finance—Harley J. Houghton, Chairman. Dance—Edward Anderson, Chairman.
Grounds and Transportation—Cyrus E. Hall, Chairman.
ALEXANDER IRONSIDE, President. ANGUS McDONALD, Secretary.
JUDGES WILL BE CHOSEN ON THE GROUNDS

WASHINGTON.

Mrs. Alma Rogers of Denver, Col., and Mrs. Josie Fitts of Janesville, Wis., are spending a few days at the home of their sister, Mrs. William Recor.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children
In Use For Over 30 Years

Always bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Williams

GRANITEVILLE

Special for Friday, Sept. 1, at Granite theatre: Francis X. Bushman and the queen of the screen, Beverly Bayne, in "Man and His Soul" in five acts. Don't fail to see this famous play. At regular prices, 10c and 5c.—adv.

Notice to the members of Court Rob Roy, No. 6, F. of A., wishing tickets for the private dance to be held on Saturday, Sept. 2: Tickets can be procured from the following committee, M. P. Sullivan, Albert Healey, D. W. McLean, W. A. Vivian and John B. Rabitaille.

EAST MONTPELIER

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Butterfield were visitors in Cabot Wednesday.

L. D. Coburn, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Parker and Mr. Murdoch and daughter of Worcester, Mass., guests of Mr. Coburn, are taking an auto trip through New York state.

Mrs. Orlando Knapp is entertaining her two sisters, Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Ryan, of Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kelton and Mr. and Mrs. Will Merritt took an auto trip to Williamstown Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Bennett were in Barre Tuesday.

Mrs. H. J. Conant and daughter, Ruth, who have been stopping with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Butterfield a few days, returned to Montpelier Wednesday.

Mrs. Alma Little is running the boarding-house for the Little Woolen company. Arthur Cook visited at his home in Barre over the week-end.

The two Miss Dandys are boarding at Mrs. Chaffins.

Miss Grace Hamblett returned to Montpelier Monday after staying at her home over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Brill are visiting in Morrisville this week.

Messrs. J. W. Butterfield and H. J. Conant went on a fishing trip to Peacham pond Tuesday night.

E. C. Hillis attended the funeral of C. Moore in Calais Sunday.

Mrs. Allie Greely and children visited at Jay Lilley's in Perkins Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. George L. Pray and guest, Fred Valenit, of Boston, spent the first of the week at their cottage on Joe's pond.

Miss Mary Welsh of North Woodstock, N. H., is helping Mrs. L. D. Coburn till her school begins Sept. 15.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hollister are stopping in Barre for a while. Mr. Hollister is being treated by Dr. Carver.

Mrs. Lester Knapp and children, who have been stopping with her mother, Mrs. Johnson, went Saturday to Belows Falls, where Mr. Knapp has employment.

The Misses Edith and Carrie Hollister are visiting Mrs. Blanche Kent in Hardwick.

Mr. Gates and man of the Standard Oil team were business visitors in town Monday night.

Charles Ainsworth is visiting his niece in Cabot.

Thomas Lawless and mother, Mrs. Maggie Lawless, were visitors in Barre Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sibley and daughter, Carrie, and Miss Hattie Sibley took an auto trip to Newport and Derby Line Saturday, returning home Tuesday afternoon.

The district supervisors and wives met with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Butterfield at their cottage at Nelson pond Saturday afternoon for a picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Nye and family motored to Willoughby Lake Sunday.

Mrs. John Fowler of Plainfield visited at Mr. Will Greeley's Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Sparrow and daughter, Elizabeth, of Montpelier, are visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Warren's this week.

Miss Bertha Johnson was in Belows Falls over the week-end.

Mrs. Harris, who has been visiting at her home in White River Junction, returned Tuesday.

Messrs. Alis Cate and Ted Rudd were business visitors in Barre Wednesday.

Will Hargin, a former resident of Calais, and Miss Lillian Hall of Cabot were

I know
Resinol
will heal this rash

I never worry if I have a little rash or other eruption break out—I just put on a bit of Resinol Ointment. That takes out the itching and burning instantly, and soon clears the trouble away. I learned of Resinol Ointment through our doctor prescribing it for my brother. Tom had been almost frantic with eczema for months but that ointment healed his skin like magic.

Resinol Ointment is sold by all druggists.

married last week at Woodsville, N. H. Clifford Stetson, a classmate who is preaching at North Tunbridge, is the guest of Weston Cate at J. W. Butterfield's this week.

Messrs. Edith Pray and Thomas Lawless attended the auction at Ernest Hathaways in Calais Monday.

Jenny Byron took a party to Morrisville to the fair Wednesday.

Weston Cate and friend, Clifton Stetson, are attending the state Universalist convention at St. Johnsbury this week.

WAITS RIVER

Miss Honora Murphy returned to her home in Bradford Saturday, after visiting among her many friends for a week. Miss Murphy, who has taught in the village school for two years, has gained many friends aside from the students, who regret her departure and wish her success in her new field of labor.

Mrs. B. G. Miles of Montpelier is with her mother, Mrs. S. T. Locks, who seems to be getting along slowly from a recent cold.

Mrs. Goldie Bowen Clark and two youngest children of Magog, Canada, were here for a brief visit among friends and relatives, this being their native home.

Mrs. Carlos Wright of Bradford visited at Eugene Dickerman's several days last week.

Misses Lora and Ruth Cunningham visited at G. W. McDuff's recently.

Mrs. Blake Locke of Corinth made a brief visit among relatives and friends last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Taplin of East Barre were at E. P. Richardson's over Sunday.

The many friends of H. B. Martin will be glad to learn that he is gaining.

Mrs. H. B. Martin was in Bradford Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Hubbard of South Royalton are visiting his mother, Mrs. A. V. Hubbard, and other relatives.

The ice cream social of Epworth league was much enjoyed by about forty young people.

RANDOLPH

Rev. Fraser Metzger Declines Appointment as Chaplain for Vermont Troops.

Rev. Fraser Metzger was asked to act as chaplain in place of John M. Thomas, who has resigned to take charge of Middlebury college, of the Vermont troops. Mr. Metzger, after consulting his church committee, decided to remain at home and has declined the honor.

Mrs. H. E. King of Woodstock is spending several days with her sister, Mrs. H. G. Morton.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Manchester are in Woodstock this week with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Burnell, and attending the fair.

Miss A. C. Northrop of New York City is passing a part of her vacation with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Northrop, who have also a cousin, Mrs. Grace Gilbert of Pasadena, Cal., with them for a few days.

Attorney Manley A. Raymond of New York City has been with his family, the guest of his cousin, Mrs. Carrie Tewksbury.

Miss Margaret Merrill came from Burlington this week for several days stay with Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hollis.

Dr. W. S. Quint of New York City, a Dartmouth student with R. A. Chedel, is passing the week with Mr. and Mrs. Chedel.

Mrs. Harry Corwin of Lowell, Mass., has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. H. Allis for a few days.

Richard Grant of Springfield, Mass., was with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Grant, the first of the week for a few days.

George Byam of Bethel was brought to the sanatorium this week for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Curran and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Curran were in Middlebury this week attending the fair.

Lewis Flint of Burlington is in town this week on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Flint.

Barney Shapiro has sold his house on the Rowell addition, now occupied by Louis Raymond, to Albert Porter, who will take possession about the first of October.

Miss Bertha Wood of Woodstock has been with Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Wood this week for a few days.

Rev. J. H. T. Baptist church in this place and gone to South Norwalk, Conn., where he is to be pastor of a new church. The new pastor, Mr. Hinkley, who has accepted the call, will arrive about the first of October, and till that time, the church will be supplied with a speaker each Sunday.

A daughter was born Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Ames, who reside on Rifford brook.

Miss Lottie Osha has gone to Granville to pass several days with her aunt, Mrs. Mabel Burke.

Miss Luna Church, who was graduated from the high school here last June and is to go to Worcester, Mass., soon to take up some of her studies, was given a surprise party, at which there were about twenty-five who came to give her a farewell.

The evening was passed with games and a corn roast which all enjoyed.

Eli St. Lawrence had the misfortune to drop a heavy piece of tiling which he was handling on to his right wrist, which injured it so he has been obliged to have it put in a cast.

Miss Margaret Loan, former operator at the Randolph Telephone Exchange, now has a position in the New England Telephone and Telegraph company, in the accounting department at their office in Boston. Miss Loan lives at Norfolk Downs.

Watson Larose and Miss Lottie Begore, both of Monkton, were married by Rev. Fraser Metzger at the Bethany parsonage on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gladding and Mrs. Sadie Hooker went by automobile to St. Johnsbury Tuesday to attend the Universalist state convention.

Louis Clough of Worcester, Mass., and Miss Anne Pierce of North Andover were guests of Mrs. Mary Adams over Sunday. Miss Ella Adams of Richmond is also being entertained at the same home.

Everett Nuttallmaster of Boston is passing the week here at the home of Mrs. Alice Bruce, who will later go into camp in the Marcott cottage.

WORCESTER

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Potter and son from Barre were at Frank King's Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. B. Cross were visiting in town last week.

S. C. Robins from Barre was a business visitor in town Monday. He has an air compressor drill and is working on the state road near Charles Cames, taking out a ledge. Cy Hull is running the drill.

Barbara Dingwall from Barre is the guest of Margaret Curtis for a week.

Mrs. Lizzie Conner and three children from Montpelier are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Dodge, for a few days. Ira Dodge has been home from Lyndonville for a week, but returned to that place Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Nichols from Syracuse, N. Y., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hund. They are making their trip by auto.

Horace Kellogg and Henry Gray have gone to Massachusetts.

Mrs. C. M. Ladd is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Henry Holt, in Montpelier, this week.

Leon Dymon is quite ill.

The Mother's club will meet with Mrs. Waive Utton Thursday.

Hilda Wright of Syracuse, N. Y., who has been visiting Mrs. Charles Cane for some weeks, returned home Tuesday.

A hall game between Worcester and Middlesex was played Saturday with a score of 16 to 4 in favor of Worcester.

Herman Curtis has returned home from Cabot, where he has been at work for five months.

THE PIANO CLUB.

The Piano club is being rapidly filled up. Those wishing to buy a beautiful upright piano, either mahogany, walnut or oak, of a standard make, which is, by special arrangement with the manufacturer, offered to the members of this club for $250.00, and pay only $10.00 down on delivery of the piano and then $12.50 per week.

If you are going to purchase a piano, you should write to Geo. D. Jarvis & Son, Burlington, Vermont, for free catalogue giving full particulars in regard to this piano.

There are only a limited number in this club, and when that is filled, the price and terms will be advanced.—adv.

"Look, Pa, How 'Gets-It' Works!"

Lifts Your Corn Right Off. Never Fails.

"Ever in your life see a corn come out like that? Look at the true skin underneath—smooth as the palm of your hand!"

Well Now, Look at That! Off Comes That Pesky Corn as Slick as a Whistle

The earth is blessed with the one, simple, painless, never-failing remedy that makes millions of corn-pestered people happy, and that's "GETS-IT." Apply it in 2 seconds. It dries. Some people jab and dig at their corns with knives and razors—wrap their toes in packages with bandages or sticky tape, make them red and raw with salves. Nothing like this with "GETS-IT." Your corn loosens—you lift it off. There's nothing to press on the corn, or hurt. Angels couldn't ask for more. Try it to-night on any corn, callous or wart.

"GETS-IT" is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere. 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Barre and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by F. G. Russell.—adv

EAST ORANGE

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Colby, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Hutchinson were in Bradford Thursday.

J. J. Dasher of Barre was a business visitor in the place Friday.

Miss Una Bohannon is spending several days with friends at Queen City park, near Burlington.

F. A. Burroughs was in East Barre recently.

Mrs. Lyman Woods of Bradford is visiting her sister, Mrs. Clarence Hutchinson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Prescott of Manchester, who have been visiting his sister, Mrs. J. B. Sanborn, went Tuesday to Plainfield to visit his brothers.

Mrs. Florence Wallace and children of Waterbury visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Richardson, recently.

Mrs. Louise Hill of Montpelier is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Dasher, and family.

Delbert Hutchinson of Lyme, N. H., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Hutchinson, recently.

O. A. and H. A. Prescott and Mrs. Nellie Bailey and guests, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Matthies of Norwich, Conn., motored to Lake Mary Sunday.

Mrs. Elmore Jesseman went Monday to the Mary Fletcher hospital at Burlington, for treatment. Her friends sincerely hope she may receive help. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Helen Rouhan, and her nephew, Dennis Rouhan, who came from Woodsville, N. H., to carry them over by automobile. Dr. Roland of East Corinth also went with them.

Arthur Blake and family and Mr. and Mrs. Clark of Marshfield and North Montpelier respectively, visited at M. R. Hamilton's recently.

Mrs. J. A. Dasher has a sister from Groton visiting her.

Mrs. Inez Ballou and three children of Randolph are visiting her mother, Mrs. Nancy Smith.

Mrs. George Bishop, Leon Bishop and James Rouhan and family were Barre visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Joseph Corcoran visited friends in Waits River Friday.

G. H. Bohannon and F. A. Burroughs are cutting the hay on Dr. Dow's farm.

WAITSFIELD

Mrs. Charles Fisk went Monday to Henniker, N. H.

Mrs. Candell of Providence, R. I., is a guest of the Misses Bucklins.

Miss Marion Niell and Miss Pauline Niell were at their former home here Tuesday.

Miss L. Jean Bisbee is spending a week in West Townsend.

Miss Harriet E. Smith and daughters held a party in the library hall Wednesday evening. About 50 guests were present. An enjoyable time was spent in games. The hall was tastefully decorated in clematis, sweet peas and potted plants. Refreshments of punch and wafers were served.

Miss Emma Joslyn returned to-day to her school in Colorado.

Mrs. E. H. Jones is spending the week in Waterbury.

The ladies of the home circle will serve their annual harvest supper on Wednesday evening, Sept. 6, in the Congregational church. A regular old-fashioned supper served from 6 to 8 o'clock.

The children of the parish will furnish a program of recitations, songs and piano performances. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Rev. W. A. Remele spent Thursday and Friday in Middlebury and Burlington.

SOUTH BARRE.

Fred B. Niles of Boston will speak at Unity temple on Sept. 3 at 7:30 o'clock.

BETHEL

Antonio Avicelli, Antonio Lemanno, Domenico Marotrigiano and Giuseppe Morale were in Montpelier yesterday and obtained full citizenship papers at a session of the United States district court. With them went Domenico Izzo and Antonio Petrillo as witnesses.

Miss Anna Burrell is recovering from the effects of a sprained ankle which shut her in a few days recently.

Miss Polly Gifford of South Randolph came yesterday to visit her sister, Mrs. George H. Wright.

Mrs. W. E. Lambertson of South Royalton, a former resident, is visiting at Dr. W. D. Lambertson's.

W. T. Rogers is back at the Bethel mills after being laid off several weeks by a broken finger. George E. Kimball is working at the mills.

Mrs. A. E. Hastings and Miss Helen Hastings, former residents, returned yesterday to Randolph after visiting at C. C. Morse's.

Instead of entering the junior year at Dartmouth college this fall as he intended, Rev. F. R. Dixon has decided to devote his entire time for a year to the pastorate of the Congregational church, which he accepted early in the summer.

Robert Stoddard of Springfield is here to help his father get ready for his auction next Tuesday.

H. O. Maynard of Windsor is enjoying a two weeks' vacation and, with his family, is spending a part of it here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lyford of North Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Waldo and daughter of Chelsea were guests yesterday at J. F. Ripley's.

A baseball game between the married men and single men is billed for Labor day at Kehler's field.

Since the new potato season opened A. H. Spooner has delivered 70 bushels to homes in this village from his farm on Christian hill.

W. S. Jewell is working at Redstone, N. H.

Guy Hatch and W. E. Grant returned yesterday to Springfield after a few days' rest.

Miss Dorothy Parker was in Montpelier recently with her aunt, Miss Jessie Parker, who has spent much of the summer vacation there supervising pupils' gardens.

Charles R. Adams of West Hartford, a former resident, was here yesterday.

GRANITEVILLE

Alex Imlah and William Imlah left yesterday for Clark Island, Me., to attend the wedding of a cousin.

Miss Frances McWilliams has returned from a visit with friends in Montpelier.

Miss Catherine Fraser, who has been employed in Barre, is visiting at her home here before going to Watertown, N. Y., where she has employment. She will be accompanied by her brother, Duncan Fraser, who also has employment there.

Substantial aid was given the Montpelier branch of the National Red Cross association yesterday by Miss Gladys McAuley of this place when she sold flag stickpins to local citizens. The proceeds are to be added with a fund being raised by the association for furthering the work of the Red Cross in Vermont. It is hoped that a few citizens may be induced to join the society, as the dues are only $1 a year.

A number of young people from here attended the dance in the grange hall at Williamstown last evening.